Edwards’ Bibles & His Commentarial Manuscripts

Verbum Dei. The Holy Bible, Containing the Old Testament and the New; Newly translated out of the original Tongues, and with the former translations diligently compared and verified. London: Companie of Stationers, 1652 (Authorized Version).

“Blank Bible”
Montanus and Pagnini, Antwerp, 1584. JE’s copy of the Geneva, 1609, edition is in Princeton University’s Special Collections.
“The Family Bible”

According to Sereno Dwight, it was in this unidentified version that Edwards, typical of the time, recorded information about his family.

Possibly:

John Canne (d. 1667?), The New Testament of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ (Amsterdam, 1647) an annotated reference edition, with many editions of the whole Bible thereafter, including a revised version in 1664, bound with metrical psalms.
Edwards’ Main Commentarial Repositories

“Notes on the Apocalypse”

Over 200 pages in length, the only separate commentary by JE on a book of the Bible. Also the first of his commentaries, begun in 1723.

Goes through book of Revelation by chapter, then has discreet thematic sections
"Notes on the Apocalypse"

Excerpting and Remarking on Moses Lowman

Fulfilling of Sixth Vial in Contemporary Events
“Notes on Scripture”

Four volumes, containing over 500 extended entries on particular verses and passages.

Volume 1, Cover, made of oilskin wrapper bearing a Dutch-Anglo Coat of Arms

Volume 3, entry no. 500, on Joshua 13
“Miscellaneous Observations on the Holy Scripture” ("Blank" or "Interleaved Bible")

A bound volume of 900 + pages consisting of leaves of KJV interleaved with ruled quarto foolscap pages, containing over 5500 entries.

JE’s main repository of commentary and his “index of indexes”

Open to the book of James